

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

Contempt—Commitment for Refusal to Pay Alimony—Constitutional Law.—A commitment for contempt for wilful refusal to obey an order to pay suit money and temporary alimony pending a divorce suit is held, in Ex parte Davis (Tex.) 111 S. W. 394, 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1140, not to be an unconstitutional imprisonment for debt.

Foreign Corporations—Noncompliance with Local Law—Right to Defend Action.—A statute denying to a foreign corporation which has not complied with the local laws, the right to maintain an action in the state courts, is held, in American Deforest Wireless Teleg. Co. v. Superior Court, 153 Cal. 96 Pac. 15, 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1117, not to prevent its defending an action brought against it there.

Divorce—Remarriage in Another State—Validity.—A marriage by one of the parties to a divorce proceeding within the time prohibited by statute, which the statute expressly declares shall be void, whether contracted within or without the state, is held, in State v. Fenn, 47 Wash. 561, 92 Pac. 417, 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 800, not to be void if contracted in a foreign country by whose laws it is valid after the party has acquired a domicil there, although it is held to be invalid if the parties went to the foreign country for the purpose of evading the local law and with the expectation of returning to their former home.

Street Railroads—Assault on Passenger by Motorman—Liability.—The liability of a street car company for an assault by its motorman upon a passenger who has left the car to stop a fight between the conductor and a passenger who has been ejected from the car is denied in Zeccardi v. Yonkers R. Co. 190 N. Y. 389, 83 N. E. 31, 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 770.

Charities—Taxation—Foreign Missionary Society.—A local auxiliary of a foreign missionary society whose funds are devoted to enterprises in foreign countries or only a very small portion of which is expended within the state, from which no substantial local benefit of a public nature results, is held, in Carter v. Whitcomb, 74 N. H. 482, 69 Atl. 779, 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 733, not to be within the meaning of a statute exempting from taxation the property of charitable associations devoted exclusively to the uses and purposes of public charity, on the theory that the legislature will not be presumed to have exempted institutions having no relation to the welfare of the inhabitants of the state.

Street Railroads—Injuries to Person Crossing Track—Contributory Negligence—Proximate Cause.—Although one driving along a street ahead of a street car which is running so slowly that he has time to cross the track without being struck is negligent in making the at-